ABOUT ME:

Design is my passion and I am completely dedicated to every project I am involved with. I have a strong understanding and experience in print production, branding and photo retouching, as well as conceptualizing marketing materials. I appreciate clean lines, balance, proportion and anything aesthetically pleasing to the eye. In addition to design, I also have a great interest in photography and fashion fields, and I am looking for an opportunity to expand my skills further in web design and video editing.
